III.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

12. On November 5, 2008 (the “Petition Date”), IHP, IHBR, IHM and IHH (individually or collectively referred to as “Debtors”) commenced these cases by filing voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

13. Thereafter, the Debtors continued to operate their businesses as Chapter 11 debtors in possession until the Court entered an Order converting the cases to Chapter 7 on March 31, 2009 and Plaintiff was thereafter appointed the Chapter 7 Trustee of the bankruptcy estates, and has since continued to serve in that capacity.

14. Debtor IHM transferred substantial funds to or on behalf of Defendants within the year prior to bankruptcy, in excess of $126,426. Plaintiff reserves the right to amend this Complaint to include within the Transfers any other transfers which may be avoidable by Plaintiff under applicable law. At all times pertinent hereto with regard to all transfers, the Defendants are the initial transferees of the Transfers or the entities for whose benefit the Transfers were made.

IV.

PURSUANT TO SECTION 547

15. Defendants are each insiders of Debtors within the meaning of 11 U.S.C. § 101(31) Within one year prior to the filing by Debtors of the bankruptcy, Debtor made the transfers identified on Exhibit A to or for the benefit of creditors or on account of an antecedent debt owed by Debtor before the transfers.

16. On information and belief the Transfers (1) were transfers of an interest of the Debtor in property; (2) were made to or for the benefit of Defendants, creditors of the Debtor; (3) were made for or on account of an antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to Defendants before such transfers were made; (4) were made while the Debtor was insolvent; (5) were made on or within 90 days before the Petition Date; and (6) enabled the Defendants to receive more than the Defendants would receive if the Debtors case was a case under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Transfers had not been made, and the Defendants received payment of the aforementioned debts to the extent provided by the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. All of the above-described transfers are preferences voidable by the Trustee pursuant to provisions of 11 USC § 547 and are recoverable by the Trustee pursuant to 11 USC § 550.

V.

FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. § 548

18. In the alternative, the Debtor voluntarily or involuntarily transferred an interest of the Debtor in property or incurred an obligation to each of the Defendants, and the Debtor made such transfer or incurred such obligation with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any entity to which the Debtor was or became, on or after the date that such transfer was made or such obligation was incurred, indebted; or the Debtor received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for such transfer or obligation; and was insolvent on the date that such transfer was made or such obligation was incurred, or became insolvent as a result of such transfer or obligation; or was engaged in a business or a transaction, or was about to engage in a business or a transaction, for which any property remaining with the Debtor was unreasonably small capital; or intended to incur, or believed that the Debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the Debtor's ability to pay as such debts matured.

Therefore, the Plaintiff is entitled to the entry of an order and judgment against the Defendants entitling her to recover the Funds, or the value of the Funds, and all other related relief, including but not limited to, interest as of the date of the Transfers, and the costs of this Adversary Proceeding (the "Recovery"). 11 U.S.C. § 550(a).

VII.

DISALLOWANCE OF CLAIMS ASSERTED BY DEFENDANTS
PURSUANT TO SECTION 502(d)

23. As set forth above, each Defendant is the transferee of the Transfers, which are avoidable and should be avoided pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 547. Further, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the Funds transferred, or the value thereof, pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 550(a).

24. Accordingly, the Plaintiff is entitled to the entry of an order disallowing any claim of the Defendant against one or more of Debtors pursuant to Bankruptcy Code § 502(d), unless the Defendant pays the amount of the Recovery, or turns over any property as the Court may order, to the Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED Trustee prays that this Court render judgment that the transfers to each respective defendant be avoided; that the Trustee recover from each defendant the amount transferred, together with her costs, including reasonable attorneys fees, pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as allowed by law; that the pre-petition claim of each respective defendant be disallowed pursuant to 11 USC § 502(d) if the amount due is not repaid; and that the Trustee have such other and further relief to which she is entitled.
